Our services may use these “cookies” to collection information and to improve our service. You have the option to either accept or refuse these cookies, and know when a cookie is being sent to your computer. If you choose to refuse our cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of our services.

How We Use Your Information

Generally, we use your information to provide you with an efficient and customized experience. For example, we may use information in the following ways:

- To send important notices, such as communications about your purchases and changes to this Privacy Policy;
- To inform you about new services and apps;
- To send "push" notifications to your mobile device regarding apps that you have been using;
- To provide in-app information regarding users achievements;
- To provide technical support and respond to inquiries from you;
- To prevent fraud and potentially illegal activities;
- To help us to develop, deliver and improve the services and apps;
- For market research purposes that support our efforts to deliver a more valuable service to our community of our users;
- To deliver and target advertising from third parties;
- To gather demographic information about our users in order to more effectively manage the apps, and services and provide targeted advertising.
- To track clicks or other ad fulfillment metrics.

If we send e-mails or SMS messages to you for the purpose of promoting our services or apps, or those of a third-party partner, we will generally provide you with choices about receiving further such promotional messages. Preferences for "push" notifications may in most cases be adjusted through our apps and services or your mobile device.

Disclosure, transfer and sharing of your information

We want to inform our service users that these third parties have access to your Personal Information. The reason is to perform the tasks assigned to them on our behalf. However, they are obligated not to disclose or use the information for any other purpose.

Your information may be disclosed, transferred to or shared with third parties including those located outside the European Union or the European Economic Area (EEA) countries in accordance with requirements set by the applicable legislation and this Policy. We may use third parties to collect and process Your information on Our behalf and according to Our instructions. We are not liable for the acts and omissions of these third parties, except as provided by the applicable law.

We may employ third-party companies and individuals due to the following reasons:

- To facilitate our service;
- To provide the service on our behalf;
- To perform service-related services; or
- To assist us in analyzing how our service is used.

We may disclose your information under a court order, or a request from a law enforcement or other government agency; in connection with efforts to investigate, prevent, or take other action regarding illegal activity, suspected fraud or other wrongdoing; to protect and defend the rights, property or safety of our company, our users, our employees; to comply with applicable law or cooperate with law enforcement; and in connection with a substantial corporate transaction, such as the sale of our business or the Apps.

The information that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside of your country and the EEA and, in particular, the USA, which may have different or less protective privacy laws than those in your country. Your Information may also be processed by any service providers appointed by us who operate outside the EEA and their staff, and/or our own staff based outside of the EEA. By submitting or permitting us to collect your information, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing outside of the EEA. Your information transferred will be treated in accordance with the requirements of applicable laws and this Privacy Policy.

Security

We value your trust in providing us your Personal Information, thus we are striving to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. But remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and we cannot guarantee its absolute security.
